Why Scuba Diving?

Scuba diving is not only a recreational activity, but also an educational catalyst which give ample knowledge on life underwater. By learning some basic skills within small time frame, individuals can enjoy diving freely in water and observe the world underwater. The basic course scheduled in four days, which include a session in swimming pool, few open water dives, online theory, and online assessment. The international certificate will allow the student to dive to a depth of 60 feet and gives credit for the graduate and post graduate courses in many international universities.

Why Scuba Cochin?

Scuba Cochin was established in 2008, with an office at Kadavanthra, opposite Central School. Also have a branch at Kovalam, for giving training in scuba diving and watersports. It was recognized by PADI (Professional Association of Diving Instructors) in 2010, a global agency conducting research and setting standards on recreational scuba diving. We have trained and certified not less than 2000 students safely, during this period. We have participated in many environmental causes like beach cleaning and ghost net removal, we have attended the UN SDG 14 convention at South Korea in 2019. SDG for life below water.
